

WESTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY
College of Arts and Sciences
Department of English

The Western Michigan University
Department of English presents the

Fall 2010 Scholarly Speaker Series

Carol Jago has taught English in middle and high school for 32 years and directs the Writing and Literacy Project at UCLA. She served as AP Literature content advisor for the College Board and now serves on its English Academic Advisory committee.

She has published six books with Heinemann, including With Rigor for All: Teaching the Classics to Contemporary Students (2000) and Papers, Papers, Papers (2005). She has also published four books on contemporary multicultural authors for NCTE's High School Literature series.

Carol was an education columnist for the Los Angeles Times, and her essays have appeared in English Journal, Language Arts, and NEA Today, as well as in other newspapers across the United States.

Carol Jago

President

National Council of the Teachers of English

Read Write Now: Teaching in a Digital Age

Co-sponsors: Third Coast Writing Project,
College of Education and Human Development

Thursday, September 30
7 p.m.
1260 Chemistry Building

Additional Speaking Engagements:

Thursday, September 30

5:30-6:45 p.m.

3045 Brown Hall

Presentations on Carol Jago's published work by local teachers

Friday, October 1

10:30 a.m.

3025 Brown Hall

"Writing for Publication: Changing the World Word by Word"

For more information, contact Anthony Ellis
Chair of Scholarly Speakers Committee
anthony.ellis@wmich.edu